Nomination Story

Look at the award description below to familiarise yourself with the award category.

Over the years our judges have seen a lot of entries. So, they want to share the following tips to help you write a great nomination:

- Be sure that you answer the question being asked. It's a good idea to include specific examples to illustrate your point.
- Think about how the individual or team shines. What are they doing that is exceptional and beyond what is expected?
- Tell us how you know they're having an impact. Be sure to include the facts and figures too.
- You're telling a great story. Using dot points helps you say a lot without using a lot of words.
- Use language that is clear, simple and easy to understand.
- Make sure you've told us what we need to know in the nomination. Then use attachments to back it up.
- We love to see attachments. They could illustrate a point you have already made, show examples or bring the story to life through photos and videos. However, please make sure all key information is in the nomination story.
- Finally, we know you are busy and appreciate that you've taken the time to nominate, but there's one more thing we suggest... have someone proofread your work for spelling and grammar. It really makes a difference!
